2007-2008 Application, Stanford University Chapter

Psi Chi is a national honor society that seeks to bring students with similar interests in psychology together in both academic and social settings. This application for admission, as well as an OFFICIAL TRANSCRIPT (which you can order off Axess and have mailed to you), should be left in the Psi Chi box in the mailbox room located on the first floor of Jordan Hall no later than Monday, November 12, 2007. If you wish to apply later in the year (if, for instance, you have not yet declared a major or minor), you may do so. We will have an initiation later in the year. For your own privacy, please place all materials in a sealed envelope. All who meet the following criteria are encouraged to apply.

Undergraduate student criteria:

- 1) Declared Psychology Major or Minor
- 2) Overall 3.3 or higher GPA
- 3) GPA of 3.7 or higher in psychology classes
- 4) Completed at least 5 quarters/3 semesters of college study
- 5) At least 18 graded psych units, at least 15 of these from Stanford.

Graduate student criteria: You must be in good standing. Please write the name of your advisor on your application.

**Be prepared, if accepted, to attend an initiation ceremony in early March.

If you have any questions, please contact Psi-Chi Co-Presidents Jennifer Cribbs (jcribbs@stanford.edu) or Peter Radu (ptradu@stanford.edu).
